

Membership matters

ST is a union for everyone who has chosen to work on behalf of the governmental sector and its citizens. A very special responsibility! We know this to be true as we have more than 100 years of experience in improving the working conditions of civil servants.

ST welcomes everyone in the workplace as members, regardless of education or title. We are convinced that all employees in a workplace benefit from being members of the same union, rather than being divided by profession. This gives us the strength to negotiate better conditions for you and your colleagues. It also means that we can provide solid expertise and support that is adapted to the conditions in your particular workplace.

"I HAVE NOT BEEN AN ST MEMBER FOR VERY LONG, BUT I FEEL LIKE I HIT THE JACKPOT WHEN I SWITCHED UNIONS. YOU ARE SO SERVICE MINDED, IT'S REALLY UPLIFTING"

Your membership makes a difference in the world

In many countries, union rights and human rights are far from a given. Every year, people are killed and jailed for their union involvement. Civil servants in many countries face special difficulties in organising unions.

ST supports the founding of strong unions around the world. In this way, we want to help strengthen human rights and democratic developments.
